I'll be keeping an eye on your city. What you guys do often affects what my neighbors do.

Hi JCGray - welcome to the site!

Do you have any connections to hull or you just on to say hello? lol nice to see some people from afar taking notice of Hull tho!

Welcome and hope to chat soon!

Met a Hull resident on another site, and she suggested I check out GogetWise. Interesting site and interesting city, I look forward to watching both progress.

I've been in Massachusetts most of my life, and always lived in New England. Our state government loves Socialist policies while celebrating freedoms. If Hillary Clinton becomes president, America's government will become more like your government: higher taxes and more wasteful government programs.
